

Is there really a Green Santa for business?

Will going green really bring lots of presents for your business? If the Green Santa comes what does he bring.... and what presents do we have to exchange?

These questions and more will be raised and answered at this two hour workshop conducted by well known sustainability consultant Howard Nielsen of NAC Consulting.

Benefits

You will receive presents in the form of ideas and printed material on:

- How going green benefits the business
- What sustainability action is relevant to your organisation
- What tools to use to decide on sustainable practice on a daily basis
- Ways to engage staff in going green.

Process

There will be key inputs from workshop leader Howard Nielsen and there will be time for your questions and insights so that the workshop process is relevant and practical.

Timing

The workshop will be held from 10am to 12pm on Saturday 19 September

Venue

Going Green Expo workshop space, Commerce Building, RNA Showgrounds, Bowen Hills

Cost is $95 per person
